

English Learning Guide: Verbs and Tenses

This beginner-friendly guide explains Verbs and Tenses in simple English. Understanding these topics will help you speak, write, and understand English more confidently.

1. What is a Verb?

A verb is an action word or a state-of-being word. Examples:

- I run every morning.
- She writes a letter.
- They are happy.

Types of Verbs

Action Verbs: run, eat, play, study.

Linking Verbs: am, is, are, was, were.

Helping Verbs: do, does, did, have, has, will.

2. What is a Tense?

Tense tells us when an action happens. English has three main tenses:

- Present
- Past
- Future Each tense has four forms.

Present Simple

Example: I study English every day.

Present Continuous

Example: I am studying English now.

Present Perfect

Example: I have studied English.

Present Perfect Continuous

Example: I have been studying for two hours.

Past Simple

Example: I studied English yesterday.

Past Continuous

Example: I was studying at 8 PM.

Past Perfect

Example: I had studied before the test.

Past Perfect Continuous

Example: I had been studying for three hours.

Future Simple

Example: I will study tomorrow.

Future Continuous

Example: I will be studying at 8 PM.

Future Perfect

Example: I will have studied before the exam.

Future Perfect Continuous

Example: I will have been studying for three hours.

3. Quick Learning Tips

- Learn one tense at a time.
- Practice speaking daily.
- Write five sentences for each tense.
- Watch English videos and identify tenses.
- Read simple English stories.

4. Practice Exercise

Change the verb into the correct tense:

1. She _____ (go) to school every day.
2. They _____ (play) football yesterday.
3. I _____ (study) English now.
4. We _____ (visit) Lahore next month.

Answers:

1. goes
2. played
3. am studying
4. will visit